- Collaborated directly with the Argentina and Uruguay teams on two strategic initiatives: a) Developed and implemented product growth strategies in partnership with Sales and local stakeholders to accelerate beverage sales through
- PedidosYa
- . b) Led the development of SMAP, a tactical budget management platform that optimized promotional budget allocation across B2C campaigns in Argentina and Uruguay. The initiative increased promotional ROI by 30%.

2021-11 - 2022-05

Senior Growth Analyst

Clube do Valor, Porto Alegre, Rio Grande do Sul, Brasil

- At Clube do Valor, I helped build the foundation of the company's Growth Marketing strategy for its Wealth Management services. As the team's first dedicated Growth professional, I defined customer personas using the Jobs-to-be-Done framework and created a Kanban-based experimentation pipeline to identify the most effective acquisition channels and scale revenue growth.
- I coordinated cross-functional initiatives across Marketing, Sales, and Operations, ensuring alignment throughout planning, execution, and follow-up.
- As Growth Team Lead, I launched the company's first chatbot MVP, increasing sales by 5%. I designed the conversation flow and UX writing based on customer interviews and the most frequently asked client questions. I also conducted regular 1:1 interviews with customers, translating qualitative insights into prioritized backlog items for the Financial Operations team to improve service delivery.

- Conducted competitive analyses of the U.S. wealth management market, providing actionable insights to the Sales and Marketing teams and helping strengthen the company's competitive positioning in the Brazilian market.

2020-02 - 2021-11

Product Analyst

Company Hero, São Paulo e Região, Brasil

- At Company Hero, I was the Product Owner of the company's content platform, leading its growth from launch to achieving more than 15 first-place rankings for long-tail keywords, over 5,000 organic impressions, and a 5% conversion rate.
- I led product discovery and product development for the Marketing Consulting product. I participated in the creation of its first MVP using the Wizard of Oz prototyping approach and worked within an Agile Scrum environment. The team generated its first R$50,000 in revenue from this product, starting from scratch.
- I helped design and operate a marketing services product built around a flywheel model connecting clients, partner agencies, and partner professionals to drive sustainable growth.

2019-12 - 2020-02

Product Owner

Foini Consultores, São Paulo e Região, Brasil

- Served as Product Owner for the development and launch of the company's first training portal and training program.
- Simplicity was one of the portal's core design principles. Working closely with the engineering team, I led the sprint and coordinated the development of the JavaScript, HTML, and CSS-based portal, delivering it in a single one-week sprint. The platform reached more than 500 users during its first week after launch.

- I also led the go-to-market strategy for the B2B training program 'Knowing the Needs of Your Clients.' The first edition attracted more than 30 participants, exceeding the initial OKR target of 15 attendees.

2019-07 - 2020-02

Growth Analyst

RedaWeb, São Paulo

- At RedaWeb, I was responsible for improving the content strategy of clients across a wide range of industries. I implemented the company's Growth Marketing methodology to optimize their organic acquisition funnels, achieving an average conversion rate of 10%.
